SUMMARY.

Further sensational evidence was given at the trial of officials of the Western Mines Federation.

The accused are charged with murdering the ex-Governor of Idaho.

Harry Orchard testified that he and Steve Adams wrecked the Providence Railway Station, killing 12 or 14 people.

Orchard and Adams were paid $200,000 each by the secretary, Heywood, who ordered the explosion.

Orchard said the murder of a detective was planned by Pettibone, one of the accused, who paid him $100.

In further evidence Orchard said he had been paid for fruitless endeavours to kill the president.

Further earthquake shocks have been felt in San Francisco.

Strikers in San Francisco exploded a bomb under a crowded travelling tram. The passengers narrowly escaped.

The Bishop of London headed a deputation of Churches to the County Council to protest against living statutory regulations being allowed.

Sir Robert Bont says that the union of Newfoundland at present is neither desirable nor politically practicable.

Sir Robert Bont complains that the inadequate daily prices of the Colonial produce are not sufficient to meet the needs of the colony.

Great Britain is prepared to withdraw from the sugar convention in 1908 unless exempted from a penalizing of bounty-fed sugar.

Very notable receptions have been accorded the group of English journalists who are visiting Germany.

A number of financiers interested in Victoria entertained Mr. Bont at a luncheon.

The Paris Journal states that France and Belgium have come to an agreement respecting the New Hebrides.

The Aberdeen Irish Militia will replace the Orlint Mail Company's R.M.S. Orya.

The High Court yesterday reaffirmed its decision that Federal officers are not liable for State Income Tax.

Sir J. Forrest has approved of permits being issued to old or infirm workers for employment on sugar plantations.

They will work at recently published rates, and the employers' claims to the bounty will not be prejudiced.

In travelling through Queensland Sir J. Forrest found that the Government scale in the southern parts.

He says that the scale can be amended if it is found necessary in 1908 unless exempted from a penalizing of bounty-fed sugar.

Including the immigrants to arrive, Sir J. Forrest thinks there will be a sufficiency of labour for the sugar season.

Sir J. Forrest yesterday criticized Mr. Carrington's statement in regard to the State debts.

He said he would like to see how the Railway Commissioners would fare when they went to convert or redeem their loans.

When Mr. Carrington's scheme came to be thought out he did not think it would be adopted.

The Military Board will give early consideration to the question of appointing a successor to the late Colonel Blaylock.

Colonel R. Robertson, Officer Commanding the Victorian Field Force, has been appointed Acting Commander of the Victorian Field Force.

The Military Board yesterday made a selection of non-commissioned officers of the instructional staff to be sent abroad.

Postmaster-General Smith was found yesterday by a blackfellow at Howard Creek, 25 miles from Melbourne.

He was alive and well, but so fatigued as to be hardly able to walk.

Senator Dobson passed through Sydney yesterday on his return from the Northern Territory.

He is surprised at the Prime Minister's contention to the proposed railway from Pine Creek southwards.

He says it is a grave error of judgment which the Federal Parliament should not ratify.

The gold yield for the State for May was 46,000 oz., equal to $2,500,000 in value at £160/20.

During May of last year the gold yield was 37,000 oz., equal to $1,700,000 in value at £125/0.

The gold yield for the first five months of this year, as compared with the same period of 1906, shows an increase of 57,000 oz. and £22,000 in value.

The Methodist Conference yesterday resolved to extend its mission work to India.

The Foreign Missionary meeting of conference last night resulted in a collection of £4,252.

Sir John Forrest submitted the position in regard to the mail contract to a Cabinet meeting yesterday.

No decision was come to, as an expected arrival of the Minister of the Colonies in London did not arrive.

Sir John Forrest says the Government wants to see the contract carried out, and will not vary it.

If the contract is to be varied the Government will take it to the House of Commons.

Senator Dobson thinks that it would be a great blunder to establish the federal capital in the bush.

Cane-growers met at Woodcroft (Q.) to consider the advisableness of moving for the abolition of the excise duty.

The alternative proposal was straight-on protection. It was decided to take no action in the matter at present.

A remarkable meeting was held in connection with the formation of a new body of the Methodist Conference last night.

Those present enthusiastically responded to the appeal of the churches for financial aid.

In all £2,252 was collected. It is anticipated that before the proceedings of the conference terminate the total sum will be £5,000.

Newcastle reports a busy week in the coal-shipping trade; 65,000 tons of coal were exported.

The first of this year's Rugby football matches between New South Wales and Queensland commenced to-day.

Queensland are doing much damage.

The awards in the interstate horse and carriage races were announced yesterday.

The Dental Board on Tuesday last dealt with a complaint against a dentist for causing a patient's death.

The board issued a warning that in future such conduct would be severely visited.

The Liquor Traders' Defence Union held a meeting yesterday.

The object of the meeting was to show that the restriction of the liquor traffic would not step the trade.

Stephen Byrne, a resident of Bondi Junction, died suddenly in a train at Darlinghurst yesterday.

The best rains for many years have fallen at the head of the Great Northern line in South Australia.

The tenth week sales of 1906-7 and the second of the winter series of sales in Brisbane were held yesterday.

Mr. F. T. Evans, a prominent Christchurch football referee, says that the play at that city this season was the foulest he ever saw.

The flagship, which has been absent for nearly two months in New Zealand waters, returned to Sydney yesterday.

On 'change yesterday very little business was done. Prices showed a weakening tendency.

Weather forecast: Unsettled generally, showers on coast, reaching to parts of the interior.

Temporarily less inland, but rain shortly setting in over west and northern areas.

Fresh squalls SW to SE winds, with rough or heavy sea on coast, and to NE in inland.

SOCIAL.

Unsettled and unpleasant weather prevailed in Sydney during the latter part of the week, and it was much cooler, but up to that time the days had been ideal, and no one could have wished for more glorious weather than we were favoured with on Monday, the 4th of June. Everyone seemed to be in the mood to enjoy the sunshine and the beautiful crisp feeling in the air, and all the open-air attractions provided for the public were in consequence largely patronised.

Her Excellency Lady Northcote, who is a great lover of music, was again present at the opera on Wednesday afternoon, and upon this occasion was accompanied by the Misses Bates, who are also very musical. Her Excellency wherever she attended the opera takes someone with her who will also appreciate the music. It may be said that the opera is a very expensive amusement, but it is better understood and appreciated the opera than they did at the commencement of the season.

Invitations have been issued by her Excellency Lady Northcote to a small dinner for young people at Government House on Tuesday next, the 11th inst.

Yesterday afternoon Miss Rawson performed the opening ceremony of the "Golden Piece" Free Kindergarten at Pitt-street, Chippendale, in the presence of a large number of local residents and ladies interested in the kindergarten work.

His Excellency the Admiral and Lady Zealand returned to Sydney in H.M.S. Power yesterday afternoon, and will remain in the city for a month.

The annual meeting of the death of Mrs. Carlaw early in the week was received with deep feelings of regret by her large circle of friends and acquaintances, and only a few days, but in the country at Bowral, where she was so well known as one of the best of hostesses.

A pleasant little ceremony took place at St. Vincent's Hospital on Tuesday afternoon, when the Lady Mayoress presented the proceeds of the hospital ball to the Mother Restraints, on behalf of the hospital, and upon this occasion the cheque was for £307, which was considered most satisfactory. The ladies invited to be present were entertained at a reception, and were also much interested in a beautiful luncheon given for presentation, and which was to be exhibited in the display for the Women's Exhibition. The veil is 14 yard square, and is the design and work of the children of the hospital of St. Vincent's.

Benada Abbey, Turburerry, Co. Sligo, Ireland. It is the first time that Australian flora have been introduced to this display of flowers, and with most successful and artistic results. The design starts from a circle in the centre, and radiates outwards, and the wide outwards to the hem, worked in most beautiful stitches. Waratahs of open work have large leaves on either side. In the corners is the monogram of the Sisters of Charity, "M.A." surrounded by 12 stars and on the other.

The famous pianist, Madame Carreno, who arrived in Sydney last night, made her first appearance at the Amateur Orchestral Society's concert on Tuesday evening, before a very large and enthusiastic audience.

A ball was held at the Paddington Town Hall on Tuesday last, in aid of the Italian National League, by the Italian community in commemoration of the Festa della Vittoria. Added interest was lent to the ball by the public recognition made by the Italian to the Italian community.

On Friday evening, May 31, Miss Julie P. Cohen, on behalf of the Hospital, made her first appearance at the Amateur Orchestral Society's concert on Tuesday evening, before a very large and enthusiastic audience.

FOREIGN MISSIONARY

A MAGNIFICENT COLLECTION

£2333 RAISED YESTERDAY.

A foreign missionary meeting was held the Centenary Hall last evening. Mr. F. Cato, of Victoria, presided, and there was large attendance.

The general treasurer of the Foreign Missionary Society, Mr. W. Robson, M.L.C., was that since the last general conference Mr. W. Wilson had had received, the balance of the account was a debit balance of over £200. It was owing to the great forward movement in connection with the Solomon Islands mission that expenditure had been so large, but that expenditure was not going to return but enlarge. (Applause.)

The president of the conference, the Rev. W. Wilson, then announced that during the previous £774 11s had been received for the mission work. This included a subscription of £100 from Mr. Joseph Vickery, a member of the committee.

The treasurer, Mr. W. Robson, M.L.C., presented his report, and said that the names of the subscribers were among the most southern. If he admired anything it was the spirit of the people of the South Islands, the last conference in Melbourne had given £2000 in a fortnight, and he was glad to see that the people of the South Islands, providing as ample to New South Wales which was the hope of the people of the South Islands.

The president made a further appeal for funds, and a number of subscriptions were given.

The Rev. F. J. Stephen announced that the gentleman in the audience mentioned, promised £500, payable in a subscription of £100 a year for several years.

A Voice in the Gallery: I have a few more.

Another Voice: Put down "The Innocent Abroad" £10 now. (Renewed laughter.)
The President: I have a few more to sell. I promise £3 6s for half and chance it. (Further laughter.)
Mr. J. W. Archer: I have a few more to sell. I promise £3 6s for half and chance it. (Further laughter.)
The President: I think it will not be forgotten. He has disciplined me when I was at school, in memory of that, I will give £2 3s 6d for half. (Laughter.) My contribution in Melbourne amounted to £70. I have been in consultation with my wife, and she has given me £10. (Laughter.)
The President: Wise man!
Mr. Archer: So I am going to put it at £3 for three years.
The President: I am blessed with a family of 30 girls. (Upbraiding laughter.)
Chorus of Voices: Platform! Let's have to look at the President!
The President: I think it necessary to

The Rev. T. Adamson: I will give five each of the girls in the home at Minstrel which I am (Applause.)

The Chairman announced that the total close on the £2900 raised in Melbourne. There would give £100. (Cheers.)

A Voice: Mr. Williams, of Botany, has as long as he lives.

The President: May he live long. (Laughter.)

Another Voice: I have a brother in Alb who is a Methodist. Put him down for guinea. If he won't pay, I'll make it (Laughter.)

A Third Voice: I've just got a brother-in-law. (Laughter.) He's good enough for

The President: In any other methods of guinea? (Laughter).
 The Chairman: Go ahead, friends, you have been told to make efforts. (Cheers).
 "The Rev. Dr. Brown: By the help of N. Bourne. (Applause).
 The Chairman: The gallery: A gentleman in Brisbane in memory of a sainted mother law—one guinea. (Applause).
 The Chairman: Over: Do you admit mothers law? (Laughter).
 The Chairman: Certainly.
 The Voice: Then I have the best in world—one guinea. (Laughter).
 The Chairman: Another mother one, and one guinea. (Renewed laughter).
 The Chairman: I don't think we have a better collection than this. We have over 300 givers, and we are somewhere at £2360. But I hope this will not stop here. I hope that the friends of Australia (hear, hear), I hope that everybody here make himself a collector. (Applause).

The Rev. B. Danks: I have here a ring for a young lady in the gallery, who is waiting to go out to the mission field. (Applause.) I will not tell the value, but if I could afford to pay it I would buy it myself as a memento of this glorious meeting.

A voice: Put it up to auction. (Applause.)

Another: I'll give 10s.

A third: A guinea. (Applause.)

A youth: Two! (Cheers.)

The chairman: No auctioneering. I'll be responsible. (Laughter.) The Rev. B. Danks will do his best in the ring. (Applause.)

Mr. J. W. Eggleston: I don't know exactly what I have given to-night. (Laughter.) I am not quite sure whether I have enough to carry me home. But I cannot leave without giving something for my father and mother. £5 5s. (Applause.)

ing contributions, and at 10.10 p.m. the chairman announced amid loud cheers that no sum than £2355 had been raised, £165 having been collected in small sums on platea.

The meeting then adjourned.

working under contractors not being entitled to relief under the present constitution of Miners' Accident Relief Fund, Mr. J. E. F. Holson, M.L.A., and Mr. T. R. Morgan, mining general secretary, yesterday interviewed Pittman. Under-Secretary for Mines, one of the members of the board administering the fund and were recommended to put the case on half of the men affected in writing, so that could be placed before the Minister for Trade to obtain the opinion of the Attorney-General.

Owing to a strike of draymen at the smelling company's works at Port Kembla, week has been one of enforced idleness pick and shovel men, of whom there are about 140 employed. It is hoped by the management that a sufficient number of casual

One great French hint says: "To waste may successfully these things are necessary—first, money; second, money; third, money."

With equal truth it may be said, To waste successfully these things are necessary—first, money; second, money; third, money.

The more economical a housewife is the greater will be her measure of success.

And it is because of the necessity for economy that is such a powerful factor in successful housekeeping.

Remember this, Ladies, when shopping to-day, and buy all your home needs at Foy's.

From every point of view these of Foy's are good Blankets to buy. They are made in Australia, and no cotton forms any part of them—the moisture emanating from the sleeper's body is readily absorbed. Where cotton is mixed with the wool, perspiration remains unabsorbed, dries, and hardens, making the blankets difficult to wash, hard to dry, and unhealthy to sleep under.

There's little of cold yet to come, Ladies, so buy Blankets now.
